

José Miguel Estigarribia Villasanti

Economist and International Entrepreneur

José Miguel Estigarribia Villasanti is a distinguished economist and entrepreneur with a strong background in international trade. Throughout his career, he has gained extensive experience in import/export, sales, education, tourism, and administrative management. In 2021, he founded the International Cooperation Institute IVEJM, a private enterprise dedicated to supporting companies in Europe and South America in achieving successful business ventures while promoting intercultural cooperation and sustainable growth.

Currently, José Miguel serves as the Client Relations Director at DStudio Consulting and Vice President of the Hrvatski Korijeni Association, where he drives initiatives focused on sustainable migration. He is also actively involved in promoting Innte Kinetic technology, contributing to its implementation in innovative projects across Europe and South America.

A permanent resident of Slovenia, José Miguel has a deep connection to the country, which he considers home, and he is committed to its economic and cultural development. His proficiency in multiple languages and understanding of diverse cultures make him an effective leader in bridging communities and fostering global collaboration.

Renowned for his organizational and leadership skills, José Miguel excels in coordinating teams, managing complex projects, and planning events. His proactive approach, result-oriented mindset, and problem-solving abilities position him as a key player in the success of the initiatives he undertakes.

Dedicated to continuous learning and innovation, José Miguel strives to create opportunities for international cooperation and to make a positive impact through his work.

For more information about his work and the International Cooperation Institute IVEJM, visit www.ivejm.org.